

Unitarian Universalist Church of Glen Allen

Board Covenant

2008

We covenant together to honor ourselves, our responsibilities and each other.

We will make decisions to further the best interests and well-being of the UUCG community, actively considering alternative approaches and opinions.

We will attend meetings regularly and on time, be fully prepared and fully present, commit only to what we can deliver and honor those commitments, and respect time constraints.

We will listen to each other, speak our own truths, and seek different viewpoints to ensure a safe, caring and spiritual environment.

We will create an atmosphere of trust by making decisions and communicating them with appropriate confidentiality and transparency.

We will speak with one voice once decisions are made.

We will have fun and use humor appropriately.

By this covenant, we commit to model healthy behavior within our spiritual community by trusting one another, assuming positive intent, and recognizing the sacred within each other, amongst each other, and within the larger community.

Using the covenant:

- Print and include with each agenda
- Review at meetings
- Be willing to "call" each other when someone strays from the covenant
- Include in the the Board binder
